

Renata Wellness and Recreation Retreat Policies © 2023

Please note that this policy is a living document.

Privacy

No spamming. The e-mail and contact information of the guests will not be shared with any other party without the expressed consent of the attendees of the retreat. Only the administrator of the Retreat has access to the personal details of the clients and information is protected on the website. The confidentiality of guests is protected by having their first names and the initial of the last names. The venue will destroy the lists as per their institutional policies.

Cancellation and Refund

Full refunds are provided when a request for cancellation in writing is submitted 10 days in advance of the scheduled/purchased service.
